As indicated in the adjacent table, the vast majority of Yukon produced goods and services were consumed within the Yukon. The level of exports rose gradually from 1999 to 2001, peaking at $416.2 million before falling again. In 2004 total exports were at $359.5 million. Between 1999 and 2003, exports on average accounted for 17.0% of all goods and services produced. In 2004 exports accounted for 14.9% of all Yukon goods and services produced. In dollar value, between 1999 and 2003, inter-provincial exports averaged $195.8 million. Inter-provincial exports in 2004 were well below this average at $182.1 million, while international exports were $177.4 million. This is slightly above the 1999 to 2003 average for international exports of $173.0 million.
